Bowman Wild in Second and Evas Score Three-Helpless Rest of Game.

By Ed. J. Murray.

Wheatley's wildness, coupled with a home run and a double by Donnelly, spelled defeat for the Evansville club in less than eight innings of play yesterday afternoon. The locals had shoved over one run, had called after a 10-minute wait.

ball over the center field wall. Then 12; Evansville, 3. Umpire-Daly, Timeand two on the paths and two men gone, Donnelly crashed one against the center field wall and two runs Bowman got away badly by hitting two men and walking one in the first two innings. After Knoll, third up in the third, cracked a Evansville single through the infield to left, Abe South Bend Donnelly made Bowman's record a Washington clean one by pegging Whelan, who New York tried to show speed on a mud going.

Wheatley is Wild. Wheatley, the opposing pitcher, Philadelphi had plenty of stuff and was zipping them across, but the plate was un- Brooklyn steady and he got in the habit of Boston missing the corners. Of the six men Chicago the pastime, four of the Benders! owed their start to four wide ones.

Tepe got in the way of a pitch as done as the next two men went out on infield drives. In the second, Toledo Knoll opened with a crash to right. Kansas City 8 13 Yantz sacrificed, Beall making the Milwaukee 4 19 throw to Koehfer. Henning walked and Kibble was hit, filling the paths. Wheatley tapped one to Bashang and Knoll counted. Tepe's single to right scored two more. Matthews ended it by grounding out, Grodick

Bowman Evas' Master. Some steady hurling and fast fielding kept the Evas from getting dangerous during the next six innings. Or'y two men got as far as first and one of these died stealing. Bowman started striking out the visitors and collected eight, grabbing off three in the seventh frame.

An almost-run was scored by the locals in the first. Bishang trotted to first on wide ones and there were two on when Wheatley bongled Grimes' bunt. Fisher died, but advanced the men. Koehler flew to Hauger, but Bashang remained at Uried. Donnelly was hit, but Tannehill drove to the pitcher and Bashang was forced at home,

Walks to Grodick and Beall, Bowman's bunt and Bashang's fly to Knol, scored the locals' first in the second. Grimse flew to Kibble, Donnelly walked in the third with two gone, but Taanehill went out on a drive that was going over the bag. Wheatiey managed to touch it, but Tepe got the other assist. Two hands had hunted cover in the fourth when Bowman came up and waited until Wheatley missed the plate four times. Under the rules of the game he was entitled to first. Bashang was soaked and the bases were crowded when Whelan hungled Grimes drive. Fisher hit one down the first base line.
